WHEREAS, City positions and policies adopted in these resolutions and ordinance include: Declaring and reaffirming the City's non-cooperation policy with ICE (U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement); recognizing all immigrants for their contributions to our economic and social life; calling for a comprehensive immigration reform bill that is fair, just and humane, calling for a moratorium on ICE raids; and fostering an atmosphere of trust and cooperation between the Richmond Police Department and all our residents; and

WHEREAS, Richmond's immigrant community is made up of residents who have come from Latin America, Africa, Asia, the Middle East, and other places around the globe, who all add to the multi-culturalism and diversity that makes Richmond great; and

WHEREAS, Arab and Muslim Americans, and those perceived as Muslims, are frequently the targets of abusive and discriminatory police practices sanctioned by government bodies including surveillance in their neighborhoods and places of worship; and

WHEREAS, The City of Richmond adopted Resolution 7-16 on January 19, 2016 in opposition to Islamophobia; and

WHEREAS, The City of Richmond is a Human Rights City and condemns all hate crimes, especially relevant in light of the November 12, 2016 murder (in El Sobrante) of Richmond resident William Sims, an African-American young man, who according to police was killed by three white men because of his race; and

WHEREAS, It is the duty of the agencies of the City of Richmond to protect the inhabitants of this City and their civil rights; and

WHEREAS, President-elect Donald Trump ran a campaign on a message of hate and bigotry which has caused numerous communities to express deep concerns about their safety and the direction of our country; and

WHEREAS, If President-elect Trump enacts policies or Presidential Orders to execute any of his hateful messages, millions throughout America will face unprecedented persecution, particularly people of Arabic decent, those of Muslim faith, Latinos, African-Americans, Asian-Americans, Native Americans, women, immigrants, persons with disabilities, and the LGBTQ community; and

WHEREAS, across the U.S. we saw hundreds of demonstrations condemning the hate messages that Donald Trump expressed during his run for Presidency; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Richmond City Council strongly urges the Contra Costa Sheriff's Office to eliminate cooperation between County law enforcement and ICE; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we will never back down on women's rights, whether in healthcare, the workplace, or any other area threatened by a man who treats women as obstacles to be demeaned or objects to be assaulted. And just as important, we will ensure our young girls grow up with role models who show them they can be or do anything; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we commit to continue to promote, protect and ensure the full enjoyment of all human rights and fundamental freedoms by all persons with disabilities; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the City of Richmond will continue to promote public transit in our multi-modal transit city working with transit agencies to provide systems we can all rely upon, whether the national administration follows through on its platform to eliminate federal transit funding or not; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the City of Richmond will continue to work to assure every resident has adequate healthcare; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That California is the sixth largest economy in the world. The Bay Area is the innovation capital of the country. We will join with other Bay Area cities and make it clear that we will not be bullied by threats to revoke our federal funding, nor will we sacrifice our values or members of our community for the almighty dollar; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we condemn all hate crimes and hate speech perpetrated in this election's wake. That although the United States will soon have a President who has demonstrated a lack of respect for the values we hold in the highest regard in Richmond, it cannot change who we are, and it will never change our values. We argue, we campaign, we debate vigorously within Richmond, but on these points we are 100 percent united. We will fight discrimination and recklessness in all its forms. We are ONE Richmond. And we will move forward together.
